ALIYAH CURRY [she/her] (Director) is a Southern bred writer focused on Black female sexuality and mental health. After studying dramatic writing, she took part in Horizon Theater Company's New South Young Playwrights Festival in 2016. She was recognized as a semi-finalist in the third annual Dramatist Guild of America Young Playwright Award for her ten-minute play, given from a staged reading at the end of this festival. Since then, she has written multiple scripts, for stage and screen. Recently, she has become a member of WTP as the Rosalind Ayres-Williams scholarship recipient for 2020-2022, where she resides on the MNDW committee, participates in workshops, critique sessions, and readings. Ellipses will be her first venture into directing theater. When she is not writing plays, she makes film, poetry, and photographs, travels, and has dance parties with her niece.
