

THE GALS OF THE GALAXY FAMILY

DANIEL SAKAMOTO-WENGEL [he/him] (Andromeda) is an Atlanta-based actor, dog dad, and loving husband, who grew up in Baltimore, Maryland. Daniel graduated in 2016 from the University of Minnesota/ Guthrie Theater BEA Actor Training Program who moved to Atlanta in 2018. Daniel is an acting ensemble member of Working Title Playwrights, and a member of the Atlanta-based writers group, The Cultivators. Daniel is excited to embark on this journey across the Universe with this galactic family.

PARRIS SARTER [she/her] (Singularity) is pleased to be a part of the reading of Ellipses as Singularity. She has been a member of Working Title Playwrights for several years and believes firmly in supporting new work. She has worked extensively throughout the Atlanta theater community. Some of her credits include: Angels in America parts 1 and 2, An Octoroon (Actor's Express), Angry Fags, The Revolutionists (7 Stages), Eclipsed (Synchronicity), and The Cake (The Horizon). She just concluded a new work that she has been collaborating with Hush Harbor Lab Productions called NINA. She hopes that you enjoy this reading of this galactic story and that it expands your imagination. Thank you for supporting live theater and please stay sane and safe out there.
