She is so excited to be a part of this cast! kristenamanda.com

CAITLYN SOMERVILLE [she/her] (Tidal) comes from a small agricultural town in Colorado, so her exposure to theater was limited; however, she gravitated to the microphone and theatrical stage since before she can remember. She could always find herself performing at local competitions, fairs, sporting events, community theater and school productions. She knew in middle school when she landed her first ‘real role’ as Miss Adelaide from Guys and Dolls Jr. that she was hooked. After high school, she took a leap of faith and moved to New York City to attend the New York Conservatory for Dramatic Arts and never looked back. Bringing her small town ethics and beliefs to the big city was a huge change, one that she happily embraced. She finds each new experience and encounter an amazing life story that she can bring with her to the stage. She is dedicated and determined, striving to bring out the best in herself and those around her. caitlynsomerville.com

THE “GALS” OF THE GALAXY FAMILY

ELI WASSERTZUG [they/them] (Tidal) is an NYC-based actor and singer originally from Northern Virginia with a BA in Drama from Vassar College. In addition to Vassar, Eli has trained with Hangar Theatre, Powerhouse Theater, Synetic Theater, and Traveling Players Ensemble. Eli aims to create inclusive, collaborative, and spectacular theater that challenges entrenched systems of power, especially gender.

South Carolina and is a recent graduate of The American Musical and Dramatic Academy in NYC where she studied Musical Theatre.
She just recently finished shooting a pilot for a TV show called Clout, so hopefully you will be able to catch that on TV in the spring (fingers crossed)! This is one of her first performances in NYC and she is so happy that it is with her guitar. Playing guitar has led her to so many other passions and she's so excited to share that with you tonight.

NEW WORKS FESTIVAL DEVELOPMENTAL PROCESS

(August 23, 2022 — January 26, 2023)

August 23: Application

Milky Way Theatre Company posted a call for plays on their Instagram @milkywaytheatrecompany.

On August 26, David Quang Pham was made aware of the theatre company while at Don't Tell Mama, where Jamiel Tako L Burkhart produced Miscast Cabaret that night. David went to Don't Tell Mama with Christina Hemphill and her family after another production of her show A Symphony for Portland at The Players Theatre, where Jamiel played Aaron.

October 10: Acceptance into the First Annual New Works Festival

Email: New Works Festival!!! Hello, CONGRATULATIONS! My name is Jamiel and I'm so happy to officially offer you and your fantastic shows a spot in the New Works Festival, currently planned for January 2023. I'd like to sit down with each of you this week and talk about next steps. Thank you and I hope to hear from you soon. Please confirm by this Friday, the 14th of October. :)

October 12: First Meeting with Jamiel Tako L Burkhart

David and Jamiel reconnected at Sunlight Studios. David outlined his goals to work with an orchestrator on his music, narrow his script, and see it read in person.

October 12 – 23: Assembling the Team

David brought in Si as the dramaturg. He first met them at Dixon Place's production of Camille Thomas's paRenT PlUs LOaNs, where Si served as the director, on September 16, 2022. A day before the acceptance into the festival, Si and David bump into each other while working in the same venue from different companies. Si was the only person on his mind when Jamiel asked who he wanted to bring in.

Jamiel brought in Jay as the director and Simon as the orchestrator. Respectively as an actor and the Covid Compliance Officer, Jamiel and David worked with Jay in the Players Theatre's production of Christina Hemphill's A Symphony for Portland. David and Jay interviewed and connected on their experiences in sci-fi.

November 5 – 23: Casting

Jamiel posted the casting call on Backstage and Google Form titled "The First Annual New Works Festival: Ellipses."

November 5 – January 4: Dramaturgy Meetups with Si Boudoin

The book started at 96 pages and winded down to 76 pages with Si's dramaturgical feedback. It took five sessions.

Si and David often met up online. One time, they visited Masquerade and discussed alternate endings for the story. David finally changed the ending after a year holding the draft, hearing Si's notes about its contemporary meanings.

November 5 – January 4: Orchestral Painting with Simon Broucke

Simon was assigned to orchestrate 11 of the initial 26 musical numbers, which are performed at the reading.

On December 4, Simon and David met up at Simon's apartment to play through every number.

For four sessions, Si and Simon and David restructured HD's "I Want" song: "Cutting Edge (Make Myself Clear)."

December 20: Table Read

The table read was held on Zoom. It took 100 minutes.

Jay asked the performers to name the central theme of the musical with the first and majority saying "family" followed by "adulthood."

January 16 – 25: Rehearsals

Monday, January 16 at 4-10PM in ART/New York, Studio A

Wednesday, January 18 at 4-10PM in Dramatists Guild Foundation's Music Hall

Monday, January 23 at 4-10PM in The Players Theatre, Room 3B

Wednesday, January 25 at 4-10PM in Dramatists Guild Foundation's Music Hall

Artistic Director	Jamiel Tako L Burkhart
Executive Coordinator	Kiara ‘Kiki’ Sanichara

Legerdemain

A surreal fantasy RPG inspired by roguelike games and interactive fiction. Become a magician in the world of Phenomedom! Escape from prison! Learn rituals! Collect paragraphs! Converse with conjoined twins! Do battle with wild and original enemies, including pookahs, imp-imps, and boogadah dream porridge. Altogether there are dozens of areas to explore, hundreds of original monsters to slay, and nearly two hundred citizens brimming with lies and idle gossip.

There are also some puzzles, and a fair number of shrewd (lewd?) jokes. Mild psychotic interludes and hallucinatory episodes are also featured.

The Angels Have Always Been Black

by Aliyah Curry @_aliyaah_

The Angels Have Always Been Black is a metamorphosis of Black girlhood, queer sexuality, God, and family. Through a mix of traditional forms, as well as her own style of verse, the angels will take you up, then down, then up again, weaving hope through all the memories, beloved and triggering, before resting once again on the shelves of Mommy's freshly dusted mahogany shrunk.

This narrative is matured into Black womanhood on these wings, journeying home, earth, riverlands, and sky. Granny braids your hair, a new lover breaks your heart, and Black women prevail.

Finding Balance

bitly/BalanceAnotherWay

Finding Balance is a series of weekly conversations on the dualities that are causing friction in the Arts, across discipline. Each week we pull a topic from pop culture to put through the Sustainability Cycle, an innovative approach to navigating uncertainty. We can't promise we'll find solutions to everything, but we can promise an hour and a half of presence, awareness, and mindful conversation.
